

Robert Kennon

Sous Chef

Robert@larkspurvail.com

Robert Kennon is on a mission: to learn as much as he can from the best talent available before opening his own restaurant with his younger brother. His calm, mellow personality belies his strong ambition.

A Hawaii native, Robert has had excellent mentors by being willing to follow his dream to work with only the best. His resume touts famous chefs – Traci Des Jardins of Jardiniere in San Francisco; Mitchell and Steven Rosenthal, of Wolfgang Puck's Postrio, San Francisco; Dustin Vallet of Vox Wine Lounge, Las Vegas and Aqua, San Francisco; Richard Reddington, of Redd, Napa Valley.

At Redd, he met Armando Navarro, Chef de Cuisine, who became a close friend and teacher. When Armando moved to Vail to take over the kitchen at Larkspur, Robert was thrilled to be asked to join as the Sous Chef. The two work together to bring new and interesting flavors to the Larkspur menu.

It's no wonder he enjoys the creative side of cooking. Robert's hobbies include all kinds of artistic endeavors – painting, drawing, sculpting, and all genres of music. An outdoor enthusiast as well, he has been a skier since his teens and looks forward to kayaking and mountain biking in the Rocky Mountains.
